

Industrial

Johnson Controls - BNSF Water Line Repair

Starts With A Foundation

Johnson Controls came to Ayars & Ayars, Inc. for help with determining the source of a water main leak below the building slab. By highlighting the abilities of our concrete crew this project required excavation to remove and replace damaged sections of the mainline, along with concrete repair.

Project Details

➤ Location:
Fridley, Minnesota

➤ Size:
500 sq. ft.

➤ Type of Construction:
Concrete Repair

➤ Project Completion:
2014

➤ Johnson Controls is a global diversified company in the building and automotive industries.

