

Warehouse

Larry Coffey

Brrrr... It's Cold In Here!

This facility is used as a dairy products distribution center to serve retail outlets. Approximately half of the building is a refrigerated dock area with interior insulated metal wall and ceiling panels. A small self-contained freezer room is provided for temporary storage of frozen dairy products. The remaining building areas consist of offices, support and equipment storage space. Exterior concrete paving provides adequate area for truck traffic flow and truck parking spaces.

Project Details

Location:
Lincoln, Nebraska

Size:
3,000 sq. ft.

Type of Construction:
Wood Framed with Interior
Insulated Metal Panels

Project Completion:
2015

Larry Coffey

